Welcome back to another round of films! Please note—we are moving up our start time to 5:30 to accommodate several films that run a bit longer than two hours.

For our patrons who love romantic classics, we are starting out in April with four favorites that have stood the test of time. From the 40s through the 70s, they feature actors everyone loves, especially as couples—Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman, James Stewart and Grace Kelly, Audrey Hepburn and George Peppard, Alan Alda and Ellen Burstyn.

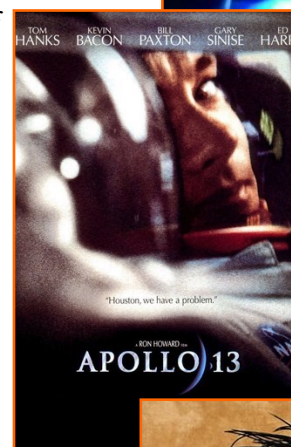

In May, our five films all have some tie to Florida from Key Largo to outer space. Our bonus film will be a showing of The Black Stallion, William Farley's classic tale. As home to the William Farley Literary Landmark, WHJJ Venice Public Library is proud to show this wonderful film.

We celebrate the wide world of sports in June, from baseball to biking.

Thanks to our Friends for sponsoring our series and purchasing the films which will be added to our collections after we view them.

On with the show!

May - Florida!

June - Sports!
